Secret of the Lamas:

A Tale of Thibet

"The incidents of the story are of a kind so unusual that they will be fresh even to the most industrious reader of novels."—MORNING POST.

"A daring, original, and marvellous tale of Thibet. The subtle forces of meamerism are brought into play, and other far more astounding mysteries attend the hero's experiences among the strange people who initiate him into the supreme secrets of Buddhism. While the supernatural scenes are described with a realistic vigour reminding us of Rider Haggard, there is an undercurrent of natural love flowing through the story."—DAILY CHRONICLE.

"It certainly is a remarkable and clever book."—GLASGOW HERALD.

"Will excite even the most jaded reader of novels."—TIMES OF INDIA.
